PLANTERS' SESSION

SUGAR MEN SPEND MORNING
LOOKING OVER THE LOCAL EX-PERIMENT STATION.

The visiting managers and representatives of the different plantations who are in town at the present attending the annual meeting of the Planters' Association, met this morning at the Experimental station to look over the work which was being done, and to hear the reports from the different heads of the departments.

Shortly before nine o'clock the guests began to arrive, and by nine thirty nearly all the members had arrived. The guests were taken around to the different departments, each department head giving them a short talk on his special work.

The members were very much pleased at the work which has been done in the past year, and the prospect for the coming years' work is better if anything than the work just finished.
Shortly before twelve the meeting adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon, when the reports of the work done at the Experiment Station will be read, and other important matters will be taken up.

The special trip to Oahu plantations will probably be given up, although the matter will be finally decided upon this afternoon.

ing apparel, including a watch, altogether valued at $125.

The Lowrie $400,000 damage case is still being argued on the motions to amend the original complaint and to strike from the docket, and bids fair to continue during the remainder of the week on the same questions. There is little else in sight on the calendar of Judge Robinson's court that will in-

ALAKEA WHARF

READY FOR DELIVERY NEXT WEEK WITH A PROSPECT OF PILAKIA.

The new Alakea street wharf will be ready for delivery to the Territory early next week and the contractor, Whitehouse, will have it off his hands.

Still there will be considerable work to be done before it can be said with truth that the wharf is complete, for some three thousand running feet of joints between the fifty-foot and other sections of concrete blocks will have to be gone over, the blocks having swelled to the extent of ridging heavily at all joints, particularly on the twenty-foot planking along either side of the large structure. In some places the humps are obstructions to traffic, but in every case where the blocks have ridged it will be necessary to take out a row or two of the blocks to even the pave.

Original plans did not call for any joints to prevent ridging as the result of swelling and when finally joints were agreed to it was decided to put in the joints on the main stretch every fifty feet and to make these joints three-inch and filled in with sand and tar.

Three-inch joints every fifty feet, says Whitehouse, have proved not to be the correct method and not Whitehouse's way.

It is settled that the Public Works department will handle the work of remedying the results of the blocks swelling, since this is not the fault of the contractor.

Much interest is excited by the patent spring piles along either side of the wharf. Outside of the main wharf piles have been driven at twenty-foot intervals, sawed off below the level of the wharf edge, braced with heavy timbers which are below water at high tide and uncovered so that they are meat for the worms, and the heads of the piles are connected with the wharf sides by huge springs which, it is claimed, will soon get out of kilter, for the impact of a steamship will disturb the nice adjustment of the patent buffers and should the nose of a steamer ever poke a pile sideways there will be considerable damage. It looks well, this arrangement, but the waterfront-ers are wondering what will be done to it when the first vessel grinds alongside.

There seems to be nothing definite in regard to the nature of shed to be erected on the Alakea street wharf, for the appropriation is declared insufficient for the construction of a steel two-story balcony affair. The wharf is likely to stand a long while without a shed.

FOR THE YACHT.

The performance of "Finnegan the Millionaire" which was given last night at the Orpheum for the benefit of the Trans Pacific Yacht fund was not a great success in point of numbers.
Only seventy people were present at the play, and it has proved beyond a shadow of doubt that three amateur performances will not go in Honolulu. It seems that more people might have taken an opportunity to give something towards the yacht fund but the committee are in the receipts last night, as the house had been given to them free by the management.

"Sonny" Cunha played a number of pieces on the piano which were greatly enjoyed by the people present. Jack Bergstrom and Miss Bell played with even more spirit, than they did at the other two performances. Hooley in the part of the Millionaire was very good, and in fact the whole company played even better than they did before. "About $96 was added to the yacht fund last night.
